

PUBLIC LEDGER

FOURTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, APRIL 27, 1895.

ONE CENT.

LARGEST IN THE CITY.

Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising notices free any more than a merchant can give away his goods. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls

Upon The Ledger for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:

For Notices of Suppers,

excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for ordinary notices, reductions of space, etc., The Ledger will charge five cents a line, and heretofore this will be the reasonable rate. This, however, is not the case.

Does Not Include

columns of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.

Avoidance of Disputes.

Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Notices in The Ledger is 10 cents a line for first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local inserted in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—22 times—the bill is $22. When he finally comes to pay a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an icy feeling. Now, to obviate this trouble, we "fill" before notices will be accepted hereafter. Let's have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant to all around.

For all matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

IF you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop a note to this effect.

Major Joe Kindig of York, Pa., is in the city.

Miss Cora Luman of Tollenboro is visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. J. D. Dye is visiting Colonel George W. Dye at Sardis.

Rev. Father Major of Winchester is the guest of Rev. Father A. T. Ennis.

Mrs. Anderson Finch has returned from a visit to her daughter at Philadelphia.

Mrs. J. R. Turner of Flemingsburg is the guest of Mrs. Maria Tolle of this city.

Mr. Charles Wathier is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Louis Linn, at Charleston, W. Va.

Hon. Howard Davis left this morning for his home at Morganfield, after a visit to relatives here.

Rev. R. G. Patrick attended the meeting of the Bracken Board of Baptists at Lewisburg yesterday.

Master Frank Fitzgerald of Covington spent yesterday in this city with his grandmother, Mrs. John Shea.

Mrs. W. O. Cochran came home last night from Millersburg, where she had been attending the funeral of Mrs. McIntyre.

Mrs. J. T. Crawford has returned to her home at Keyser, W. Va., after a visit to her mother, Mrs. S. J. Daugherty, in this city.

Colonel Joseph F. Perrie left here Thursday at 4 p. m., on a tour of business in Louisville and was back home at 9 o'clock last night.

Rev. Dr. Henry M. Scudder of Carlisle was in Maysville yesterday on his way home from Crittendon, where he had been attending the meeting of Ebenezer Presbytery.

Mrs. Sarah McIntyre of Millersburg died Wednesday, aged 64.

And now Mr. Olivet comes to the front with a first-class baseball club.

An anti-saloon club has been organized by Mr. Olivet, with Colonel F. M. Young, formerly of this city, as President.

The lecture by the Rev. Carter Helm Jones at the First Baptist Church last evening, for the benefit of the Young People's Union, was a success, both from a literary and a financial standpoint.

A few days ago a teacher at the Paris High School requested a pupil to give answers to the question, "Why I study," and received the following from a little girl: "First—My teacher makes me study. Second—My pa makes me study. Third—My ma makes me study. I have no other reason."

When Maria Jane's elected to the Majority chair.

There'll be many wrongs corrected that are now apparent there.

The sidewalks will be carpeted, the streets swept thrice a day.

The alleys be as fragrant as fields of new-mown hay.

What with parties and receptions and occasionally a ball.

There will be a transformation around the City Hall.

And each Ward in the city will be represented there.

By lovely Aldermen and not horrid Aldermen.

When Maria Jane is Mayor, none but ladies will, of course.

Be appointed members of the city police force.

And in their blower uniforms they'll look as very sweet.

The gang to be arrested will consider it a treat.

The stores will be compelled to have a bargain sale each day.

And for chawing gum and soda you will not be asked to pay.

Oh, great reforms will be projected, all the wrongs will be corrected.

When Maria Jane's elected to the Majority chair.

The Standard Furniture Company has purchased 500 acres of timber land near Ashland.

Mrs. D. A. Richardson, who has been quite ill, is somewhat improved this morning.

Mrs. Philip Nippert, Sr., died at her home in Paris from a stroke of paralysis, aged 65 years.

It is said the Populists will attempt to make nominations for the Legislature in every county in this state.

Thirty-six head of trotting stock belonging to G. and C. P. Ceil of Danville brought $30,000 at Boston.

There was a very interesting meeting of Friendship Lodge, D. of R., last evening, one member being added.

The City Council of Paris has had twenty-seven applications for license to sell liquor in the city limits at Paris.

The K. C. and the Kentucky Midland are now collecting and delivering freight free of drayage charges for Paris patrons.

M. R. Gilmore yesterday put up in the Mason County Cemetery a handsome granite monument for Mr. John G. Conkey of Kansas City.

Mr. W. H. Frederick of this city has the contract for the handsome house of Mr. John Clark at Maysville, and work will be commenced immediately.

She wore a jaunty black blue and brother's Sunday shirt.

A step that will be followed soon by the divided skirt.

She wore the old-world with an air and she owned with the earth.

And though you'd take her for a man She was a girl at birth.

There is no doubting the enterprise of the new owners of the Louisville Jaycees Club. They have offered Sousa and his band $350 a day for concerts on the lawn during the spring meeting.

Governor Brown, candidate for the United States Senate, is for free silver. It is expected that he will declare himself from the stump some time prior to the State Convention.

William A. Lippert, who was extradited from the United States after his arrest at Cincinnati last December, has been convicted at Capetown, Cape Colony, of forgery aggregating $843,675, and sentenced to seven years penal servitude.

The Cynthia Times says that fakirs swindled a number of Harrison county people with cure all nostrums last week.

These fakirs will probably be in Maysville next day looking for suckers, and will humbug all who go up against their game.

Sam Frazer, who gave the information to the detectives which thwarted the efforts of the robbers to capture a Cincinnati Southern train, is not insane as reported. He is still in jail at Somerset awaiting a trial at the June term of the Circuit Court.

In a deposition at Kansas City the wife of Charles A. Ketchum, alias Hardin, testifies that her husband and Elrod plotted the $35,000 Adams Express robbery, and that for a time the money was concealed in the Louisville photograph gallery. Ketchum is under arrest to answer for a murderous assault on his wife.

"Is Portsmouth worth a Fourth of July celebration, or will we all go to Boston and Vancouver?"—Times.

We were just thinking that perhaps we would have to come to Portsmouth.—Vanderburg Sun.

Well, neighbors, you can all come to Maysville, as we are going to have some of the finest races you ever saw.

From present indications there is going to be a large crop of tobacco put out this year in Robertson county. In a drive over to Falmouth last Saturday a Mt. Olivet Tribune Democrat man commented between Santa Fe and Falmouth, a distance of eighteen miles, 225 tobacco beds visible from the pike. Much ground is being plowed and everything points to a large acreage of tobacco in this part of the state.

It rained last night and wet the ground. And likewise wet the streets.—It's hard to say just how much mud.

Take that poor walker means. We took her to the station months ago. To take her shoes indoors.—Times.

We never knew it yet to rain. But what it always rains.

And when our streets get good and wet, We much regret to say.

The chances are some Granger friend will lose a load of hay.

The Covington Commonwealth says "How very like the fate of a Legislature is the fate of a baseball nine."

After the election of the members and the selection of the nine, and before either begins to hog the public the solons and the players are the very best material possible, the things altogether lovely, and honest legislation and ball playing is assured. But at the end of the first week how the mighty have fallen—slumped, in fact, and a more incompetent aggregation of thick skulls, wind jammers, sore arms, sore heads and kickers the sun never rose upon, and may be soon set upon them, and their like. But fickle is the sovereign public, and greatness never endures. Not even after adjournment.

The Millersburg Presbyterian Church gave $300 to the cause of foreign missions last year.

A negro man and his two small children lost their lives in the incendiary fire at Frankfort.

The Kentucky Board of Equalization made no change in the assessment of lots in Kenton county.

Alexander Porteous, a young Scotchman, was murdered at Paducah by Tom Edwards, a carpenter.

Baptist young men from all sections of the state met at Shelbyville for the purpose of forming an organization.

The funeral of Miss Sadie Hickey at 9 o'clock this morning was largely attended. Six young ladies officiated as pall-bearers.

—Misses Anna Mary Breen, Agnes Breen, Agnes Haffey, Anna Murphy, Agnes Comer and Ella O'Mara, deceased being a beloved member of the Sodality.

Mrs. Elizabeth Huff, wife of William Huff, who formerly lived near this city, now of Carlisle, died at her home at that place yesterday at 2 p. m. and will be buried at 2 p. m. today. She is the mother of J. M. Huff of the Ashland Railroad. Albert N. Huff and Mrs. Ella Crowell attend on the early train this morning to attend the funeral.

The officials of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, who have entered into an agreement to continue its relations with the L. and N., on condition that the latter road build seven miles of track between Shelbyville and Bagdad, which, via the Shelbyville branch, would shorten the distance between Louisville and Lexington about seventeen miles.

Governor Brown has pardoned ex Mayor Davidson of Lexington, who was sentenced to ten days in jail for carrying concealed weapons. The pardon has not been spread upon the Court records, and there is considerable curiosity to know what reason the Governor gives for executive clemency in view of the caustic comments of the press of the country on the Kentucky count of pardoning influential men convicted of carrying concealed weapons.

The room will be open all day. There is plenty of good reading matter, and no one need stay away. Meeting begins promptly at 3 p. m. All fully invited to attend.

PAIN'S CELERY COMPOUND.

Best Spring Remedy in the World--It Makes People Well.

There is one true specific for diseases arising from a debilitated nervous system, and that is Paine's Celery Compound, so generally prescribed by physicians. It is probably the most remarkable remedy that the scientific research of this country has produced. Professor Edward E. Phelps, M.D., LL.D., of Dartmouth College first prescribed what is now known the world over as Paine's Celery Compound, all nervous diseases and kidney troubles. For the latter Paine's Celery Compound has succeeded again and again where everything else has failed.

The medical journals of this country have given more space in the last few years to the many remarkable cases where the use of Paine's Celery Compound has made people well than to any other one subject.

Mrs. Michael Foley, aged about 65 years, after an illness of two days died last night at 8 o'clock at her home several miles below this city. Her husband and two children survive her.

The Junior Order of United American Mechanics, which has been in session at Covington for the past few days, closed with a big parade. The next meeting will be held at Lexington in March.

The advertisement of a business man in his home paper stands out in bold relief as a signal of success. The patrons of the paper know he pays for the space he occupies. They see his name often and become familiar with it. When they wish to buy they go to the man who advertises, because none but liberal, enterprising merchants advertise.

Government revenues from spirits increased $1,180,739 during the past nine months, and on tobacco there was an increase of $951,385.

Robert Walton, who shot and badly wounded Frank Brown at Fern Leaf Sunday night, was arrested last night by Constable Dawson. He is now in jail.

At a recent wedding it was noticed that the old shoe to insure good luck was not thrown after the bride, but raced for by all the spinsters present. It was thrown as far as possible, and the one who succeeded in reaching it first it is supposed will be the next bride. The bachelors were drawn up in a second row, and the young woman who picked up the shoe threw it among them. The one hit by the decedent footstep will, according to the omen, be the next man married. The custom is one honored somewhat in provincial England.

The Ruth is due up for Portsmouth tonight.

The St. Lawrence is the Pomeroy boat tonight.

The Telegraph is due down at midnight from Pomeroy.

The steamer Hudson is due up tonight for Pittsburgh.

All the rivers above are falling, and the gauge at 7 a. m. at this place read 13.5 and falling.

It is extremely doubtful if some of the towboats now under way will be able to reach Pittsburgh.

The river at headwaters is getting very scant, and preparations are being made at Davis Island Dam to raise the wickets.

The Boston will be pulled out and given a thorough overhauling. Her front cabin will be cut away, so as to make a promenade deck for the excursion service.

The Scotia was let off the docks yesterday thoroughly overhauled. Captain Thomas Callahan of the Il-fort Queen will be in command and R. H. Kerr will have charge of the office. She will pass down tomorrow afternoon on her first trip.

The ferryboat Little Laffie at Manchester, O., has been succeeded by the W. H. Whitman of Chilo. The owners of the Little Laffie, the C. and O. Railroad and the Business Men's Association at Manchester couldn't agree, which caused her removal. She has gone to Huntington.

Fort Thomas March for the piano or organ, by F. A. FILLMORE. One of the most popular marches ever published. On the piano or organ has a real brass band effect. It should be in every home where there is an organ or piano. Grade 3. Price 50 cents.

Order your music of all kinds and at all times of FILLMORE BROS., Music Publishers, 141 W. 63rd St., Cincinnati, O.

What Our Correspondent Has to Say of the People Down on the 'Ridge'.

There are about two weeks more of school. Farmers are not done breaking for corn yet. Early garden truck is looking fine since the shower Monday morn. Mr. Clarence Martin, teacher of the Jersey Ridge School, is very ill. Miss Ella Odom continues quite ill at her home in Charleston Bottoms. An epidemic is among the horses akin to distemper, though not exactly. Elder Hyden preached to a very good-sized audience Sunday morning and night. Mr. Joseph Black lost a valuable work mule last week by breaking his back. Mr. Black has lost several horses and cattle.

What Our Neighbors Have Been Doing at This Place Since Our Last Report.

Mr. O. B. Thomas has an attack of malaria fever. Miss Lottie Bramel visited Miss Nancy Steele of Wadonia this week. Mrs. T. K. Wood and son called on friends near Wadonia last Sunday.

Master Thomas Moore of Dayton is again in the neighborhood visiting relatives. He says he is not a relative of Moore the poet. Mrs. Marcia Clark of Wadonia and Mrs. Dr. Eckman of Mt. Carmel spent quite a pleasant afternoon with the Misses Morehead last Monday.

Mrs. J. B. Bradley of Mt. Carmel and daughter, Mrs. W. H. Tully of Tullahoma, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bramel Wednesday.

The residence of Uncle Dick Willett narrowly escaped fire one day this week, caused by sparks from a fire. The flames were rapidly increasing and spreading over the roof when discovered, but by a neighbor's assistance they were soon extinguished, therefore incurring no great loss.

THE SILENT SPRING. I never read Spring Poems: When first frost begins to break I give my alarm to the birds: What medicine to take, It's Chenoweth's Sarsaparilla.

War's Bloody Tithes.

Chicago Tribune. The fearful draft made upon the population of France by its wars during the last hundred years has been shown by a publication just issued by Dr. Lagueau, member of the Academy of Medicine, Paris. From his figures it appears that the wars of the first Republic cost France 2,122,402 men. From 1801 to Waterloo cost 3,157,388 more. In the Crimea 95,615 succumbed; in Italy, 18,678; in China, 800, and in Cochina China 48 per 1,000. The Second Empire cost France 1,600,000 soldiers. According to Dr. Lagueau's tables, the century from 1795 to 1895 witnessed the death in battle and by disease of 6,000,000 French soldiers.

A Sufferer Cured

"Every season, from the time I was two years old, I suffered dreadfully from erysipelas, which kept growing worse until my hands were almost useless. The bones softened so that they would bend, and several of my fingers are now crooked from this cause. On my hand I carry large scars, which, but for AYER'S Sarsaparilla, would be sores, provided I was alive and able to carry anything. Eight bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured me, so that I have had no return of the disease for more than twenty years. The first bottle seemed to reach the spot and a persistent use of it has perfected the cure."—O. C. DAVIS, Wadonia, Wis.

WHAT HAVE YOU HERE?

An "Atty" calling attention to the best Bread in the City.

Who Keeps This BREAD?

"TRAXEL," Of course.

THIS WEEK!

Strawberries, Pineapples, Bananas, Fresh Fish, —AT— Martin Bros.

DID U?

Did you ever think that relatives or friends who have moved to distant places—gone West, perhaps, to grow up with the country—are always glad to hear from their "Old Kentucky Home"? And did it ever occur to you that a single copy of THE MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN, the weekly edition of THE Public Ledger—contains more home news than you could embrace in a hundred ordinary letters? And did it ever strike you that you can send the paper to your relatives and friends for a whole year at less cost than you can write a letter every week? Besides, don't you think your subscription to THE REPUBLICAN would be a present highly appreciated by those at a distance? Suppose you try it and hear what they have to say on the subject.

TRY IT.
